Melody: By Bob Goehner Lyrics: By John Marinelli
Run Time: 3 minutes 14 Seconds Vocal Demo: By Bob Goehner

Song History: “Searchin For My Darlin” was written by John Marinelli as a way to communicate the enduring love between a dog lover and his or her companion animal. It is currently being used by Have A Heart for Companion Animals Inc., www.haveaheart.us, as an illustration of the love of an owner for his or her lost pet.

Country Bob, a dog lover himself, put the melody to the words to make it the snappy, upbeat, toe tapping, and hand clapping song it is today. The song is under US Copyright protection. This song has an ending twist that is meant to make you laugh and want to pass it on to others. It will surely be an instant hit for any recording artist or song publisher.

About “Country Bob” The Creator of the Melody & Recording Artist

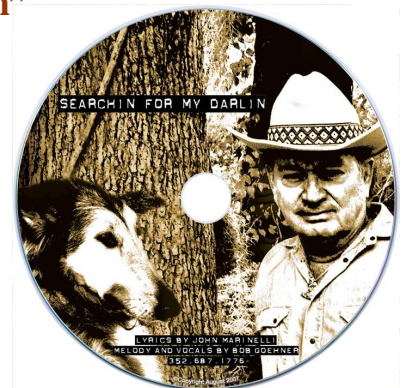

Bob is a native Floridian, born in Miami. He had a small band in 1970 called, “Bob's Country Cats.” He played in the Jr. high school band, sang in his High school choir and played in piano recitals during his teenage years. Bob loves to sing and often sang in the church choir. During the 70s and 80s he sang and played rhythm guitar in some of the local bands in the greater Miami area. Bob started singing karaoke in 2003 and now tours the local circuit as part of his retirement lifestyle. Bob loves to sing and play his guitar for friends and guests. His unique style is a favorite at all the local karaoke hotspots. Bob is a member of the Moose lodge, The Oriole’s Nest and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.
